

PRESS RELEASE: NEW FOOD FESTIVAL IN MONMOUTHSHIRE ANNOUNCED

FOOD lovers have a new date to add to their diaries with the inaugural Wye Valley Food Festival taking place at Chepstow Racecourse in September.

The free-entry event will be held at the prestigious Monmouthshire venue over two days.

As well as an array of culinary delights, visitors will be invited to browse craft and gift stalls, enjoy live music on the lawn, children's activities, a fun fair and live cookery demonstrations.

The festival is the ambition of four friends with a passion for food and a desire to showcase the wonderful home-grown food, crafts and gifts that we are so lucky to have on our doorstep.

Their aim is to provide a diverse range of culinary shopping treats, masterclasses and entertainment in the beautiful Wye Valley.

“Chepstow Racecourse is a perfect venue for our first event, giving us the scope and the space for our imaginations to run wild, and create a great day out for the family,” a food festival spokeswoman said.

“Our aim is to bring people together to explore food and drink and have a great day out at our first foodie feast in Monmouthshire.

“It will offer a weekend of fun for all the family with live music, giving local musicians the opportunity to showcase their talent, fair rides, face-painting and a children’s activity corner.”

Rebecca King, marketing manager at Chepstow Racecourse said: “We are delighted to be holding the Wye Valley Food Festival here in September. It is great to see new and exciting events come to the local area.”

The Wye Valley Food Festival takes place on September 1 and 2, 2018.
